

U Multicultural Hosting Live Online Concerts

Winnipeg, Manitoba - U Multicultural, an ethnocultural TV and Radio broadcaster with support of Safe at Home Manitoba, stream ten mini-concerts through U Multicultural's web-platform, social media, U Radio, and cable TV Shaw Spotlight and Shaw Multicultural in Manitoba and across Canada.

The Safe at Home Manitoba supports a wide variety of Manitoba organizations and individuals who can produce free programming such as live streaming of the performing arts, cooking at home classes, at-home fitness programs, and home-based art programs for children.

Ethnic Music Concert Series Live stars skilled musicians featuring an extensive array of genres, styles, and cultures.

- Sarau Carioca
- Marco Castillo
- Zeann Manernaluk
- Phoebe Man
- Ray "Coco" Stevenson
- Hellinback & Lisa Muswagon
- Onna Lou
- Dust Rhinos
- Glen Williams
- Justin Lacroix
- Dr. Henry Band

U Multicultural strives to serve diverse communities and contribute to the dynamic multicultural identity of Canada. Safe at Home Manitoba allows us the opportunity to highlight the many talented musicians that live in Manitoba and provide them with an outlet where they can showcase their cultures and stories through music. With the ongoing pandemic, the number of activities available to people is minimal. The Concert Series is a chance to distract one's mind and allow performers to showcase their works.

Visit <https://u-channel.ca/ethnic-concert-series/> for backgrounds on all performers, schedules. All U Multicultural digital platforms will feature this concert series.

Media Contact: Ryan Funk
Communications and Marketing Specialist
Email: communications@u-channel.ca
Phone: 204-332-1429

U Multicultural Inc.
info@u-channel.ca
www.u-channel.ca